INTRODUCTION

|  |   |
|--|---|
| The Problem of Glaucoma, by Sir Stewart Duke-Elder(London) | I |
|--|---|

PART I. ANATOMY, PHYSIOLOGY AND PATHOLOGY OF THE VASCULAR CIRCULATION IN GLAUCOMA

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Anatomy and Pathology of the Drainage Channels, byNorman Ashton (London) | 13 |
| Physiology of the Drainage Channels, by Sir StewartDuke-Elder (London)   | 23 |
| Discussion   | 29 |
| Anatomy and Pathology of the Posterior Segment, byNorman Ashton (London) | 36 |

PART II. THE DYNAMICS OF THE INTRA-OCULAR FLUID

|   |    |
|---|----|
| The Nature and Origin of the Aqueous Humour: Part I:Its General Nature, by Maurice Langham (London)       | 45 |
| The Nature and Origin of the Aqueous Humour: Part II:Its Bicameral Nature, by V. Everett Kinsey (Detroit) | 62 |

PART III. THE RESISTANCE TO THE OUTFLOW OF THE AQUEOUS HUMOUR

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| The Physiology and Pathology of the Filtering Angle, byErnst Bárány (Uppsala)   | 91  |
| Discussion  | 103 |
| Clinical Aspects of the Outflow of the Aqueous Humour:I. The Rate of Flow of the Aqueous, by HansGoldmann (Berne) | 105 |
| Clinical Aspects of the Outflow of the Aqueous Humour:II. Tonography, by W. Morton Grant (Boston)                     | 126 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Clinical Aspects of the Outflow of the Aqueous Humour:III. The Phasic Variations, by Sir Stewart Duke-Elder(London) | 147 |

PART IV. GONIOSCOPY

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Gonioscopy in Primary Glaucoma, by Jules François(Ghent) | 169 |

PART V. PROVOCATIVE TESTS

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Provocative Tests in Glaucoma: I, by Wolfgang Leyd-hecker (Bonn)                                | 205 |
| Provocative Tests in Glaucoma: II, by Peter C. Kronfeld(Chicago)                                | 226 |
| Provocative Tests in Glaucoma: III. The Bulbar PressureTest, by Sir Stewart Duke-Elder (London) | 245 |

PART VI. CLINICAL ASPECTS

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| The Mode of Action of Medical and Surgical Methods ofReducing the Ocular Tension, by Roger Weekers(Liège) | 257 |
| Clinical Aspects of Glaucoma, by T. H. Hodgson(Toronto)   | 273 |

PART VII. GENERAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| General Discussion  | 295 |
| Conclusions, J. S. Friedenwald and Sir Stewart Duke-Elder | 305 |

APPENDICES

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Appendix I: Terminology                            | 315 |
| Appendix II: Tonographic and Fluorometric Formulae | 317 |
